

Characteristics of a good narrative

- details
- relatable characters
- suspense
- appeal to emotion
- colorful personalities
- developed plot
- interesting setting
- clearly written, easy to follow
- well-chosen vocabulary, effective word choice

Characteristics of a good narrative

- setting (interesting or unique) that is well-described
- interesting characters
- characters people can relate to
- well-written characters
- plot
- interesting climax (suspense builds to it)
- good/satisfying ending
- engaging beginning
- catchy title
- theme song
- details

Characteristics of a good narrative

- details (sensory, descriptive)
- action
- good plot
- setting (unique, interesting)
- suspense
- horror/scary
- comedy
- drama
- mystery
- climax
- cinematography

Characteristics of a good narrative

- well-developed with a beginning, middle, and end
- lots of detail
- creative & original
- sound effects (movie)
- sensory details
- consistency between the book and movie
- good costuming
- well-explained and understandable
- dramatic

Characteristics of a good narrative