

Some types of Figurative Language

Simile
comparison that uses the words like, as, or than

Metaphor comparison that doesn't use the words like, as, or than

Personification
objects, ideas, or animals treated like human beings

Hyperbole
an exaggeration

Analogy
a comparison between things which have similar features, often used to help explain a principle or idea

Figurative Language in Amigo Brothers

Figurative language in "Amigo Brothers"

Type of Figurative Language	Example of Figurative Language	Figurative Meaning
metaphor	"they both sensed a wall rising between them"	they could feel a problem that was forcing them apart or complicating their friendship

Figurative Language in Amigo Brothers

Figurative language in "Amigo Brothers"

Type of Figurative Language	Example of Figurative Language	Literal Meaning
metaphor	"they both sensed a wall rising between them"	they could feel a problem that was forcing them apart or complicating their friendship

Figurative Language in Amigo Brothers

Figurative language in "Amigo Brothers"

Type of Figurative Language	Example of Figurative Language	Literal Meaning
metaphor	"they both sensed a wall rising between them"	they could feel a problem that was forcing them apart or complicating their friendship

Figurative Language in Amigo Brothers

Figurative language in "Amigo Brothers"

Type of Figurative Language	Example of Figurative Language	Literal Meaning
metaphor	"they both sensed a wall rising between them"	they could feel a problem that was forcing them apart or complicating their friendship

Figurative Language in Amigo Brothers

Figurative language in "Amigo Brothers"

Type of Figurative Language	Example of Figurative Language	Literal Meaning
metaphor	"they both sensed a wall rising between them"	they could feel a problem that was forcing them apart or complicating their friendship

Figurative Language in Amigo Brothers

Type of Figurative Language	Example of Figurative Language	Literal Meaning