

House Story

Using an idea that came to mind as you drew your house diagram or described it to your partner, write a brief narrative.

Use a narrative format to tell a story. You may use dialogue, setting, characterization, or other narrative features as appropriate.

Your house story should be at least 2-3 paragraphs, though more is also acceptable.