

Nouns: Concrete or abstract?

Concrete nouns: a noun that can be experienced by at least one of your 5 senses (see, hear, touch, taste, smell).

Examples: desk, apple, chair, student

Abstract nouns: cannot be experienced by any of your 5 senses. an emotion, feeling, idea, quality, etc.

Examples: happiness, imagination, education, intelligence, etc.